The undersigned hereby applies for permission to change occupancy within the property described in this application. The undersigned understands that an approved application for a change of occupancy may also result in the need to submit or apply for additional permits and approvals from the Town of Meredith under the following guidelines:

Building Permit: Required if you intend to change any floor plan layout inside the building, including partition walls. Once a building permit is approved and the work complete, a Certificate of Occupancy must be issued prior to occupying the space.

Planning Board Approval: May be required if the change of occupancy would create a change of use, site, or building modifications.

Zoning Board of Adjustment Approval: May be required if the change of occupancy conflicts with the Town of Meredith Zoning Ordinances, in which a variance or special exception would be applied for.

Sign Permit Application: Required for any new or altered signs.
