MPRD Birthday Party Package | 1/1/2026

Party Details and Tips:

- Parents must supervise children during all activities with a ratio of 1 adult to 10 children.
- Building access: Birthday parties are held in the Activity Center (gymnasium). All birthday party participants must enter/exit through the back door by the playground. The front doors are locked during parties.
- There is a half hour before your party starts that is reserved for you to come decorate, bring goodies in or just relax before the fun begins!
- There will be a staff member present during your entire party so if any questions come up or if you need anything, feel free to ask them!
- During the first hour of your party, the staff member will facilitate the activity or activities that you have chosen, and the second hour will be for free play/cake/presents.
- We have a refrigerator and freezer you can put items in if needed. We also have ice available and a lighter for birthday candles.
- Balloons are allowed, however, if they are let go there is a $50 fee to remove them as they will set off the alarms.
- Half an hour is allotted after your party ends for any clean-up needed such as removing your decorations, packing up gifts, etc. Leave all your trash for us to take care of!
- Most importantly ...HAVE FUN!

Late Cancellation Notice

In the event that you must cancel your party after 5:00pm on the Friday before your party, it is extremely important that you contact the Parks and Recreation Department by email at parksnrec@meredithnh.gov to inform them of the cancellation.

Booking Your Party:

- Complete the attached permit and submit it to the Meredith Parks and Recreation Department with payment for your party. Please note that permits will not be processed until payment is received.
